IX (A). REVIEW OF CHIEF DISCIPLINARY DECISIONS

COUNT	OPS#	COMPLAINANT	INVESTIGATOR	RECOMMENDATION	CHIEF DECISION
1	19-212	Mishka	Bowker	WCS Violation – The CPRB recommended a Group I violation for P.O. Latson's #2309 failure to activate her WCS during her encounter with a citizen who was seeking a report, and that her WCS placement for subsequent calls did not capture her field of vision while working the lobby desk.	Chief Williams concurred with the CPRB recommendation and issued P.O. Latson a one-day suspension .
2	20-094	Heckman	Hammons	Social Media Policy Violation – the CPRB recommended a Group II violation for P.O. Angelone's #2333 when he made the comment that "lead, lots of lead" should be used against protestors during the May 30 and May 31, 2020 demonstrations and when he told the Complainant that he would have the CDP Narcotics raid his house.	Chief Williams departed from CPRB recommendation and amended the Group II violation to a Group I violation , and issued P.O. Angelone a written reprimand .
3	20-202	McClendon	Delaney	Lack of Service – the CPRB recommended a Group I violation for P.O. Riolo's #2375 failure to generate an OH-1 accident report for the Complainant and failure to issue a citation to the at-fault driver.	Chief Williams concurred with the CPRB recommendation and issued P.O. Riolo a one-day suspension .

4	20-244	Elliott	Delaney	Retaliation – the CPRB recommended a Group II violation for Sgt. Williams’ #9252 when Sgt. Williams made an adverse report to the Complainant’s supervisor and his personal contact at the Sheriff’s Department on the next business day after he became aware that the Complainant had requested documentation to file a complaint against him. Unprofessional Conduct – the CPRB recommended a Group I violation for Sgt. Williams’ failure to cooperate with the Complainant as she performed her authorized security duties, was unresponsive to the Complainant when she tried to engage him, engaged in a needless confrontation with a fellow law enforcement officer and failed to identify himself when questioned.	Chief Williams departed from CPRB recommendation and dismissed the allegation of retaliation, citing that Sgt. Williams’ intentions in reaching out to the Sheriff’s Department was not to make a formal complaint against the Complainant, but to advise the Department of the events that actually took place in the Walmart parking lot via security cameras from the parking lot on the date in question. Chief Williams concurred with the CPRB recommendation for unprofessional conduct, citing that the heated verbal exchange could have been avoided if either party simply identified themselves, and issued Sgt. Williams a letter of reinstruction.

5	21-028	Pinkney Butts	Richardson	Unprofessional Conduct – the CPRB recommended a Group I violation for Dispatcher Vega’s #143 violation of the Community Control Section Policy and Procedures when he spoke to the Complainant in a loud, aggressive tone, told the Complainant that “police don’t fall out of the sky,” and hung up on the Complainant when the Complainant called for service. Taylor #2067 speaking to the Complainant in a very rude tone and asking the Complainant if he was done while waiting to escort him from the laundromat. Unprofessional Conduct and Improper Detention – the CPRB recommended a Group I violation for Sgt. Maxel #9210 telling the Complainant that he had quite the history and that was why he was on scene when it was the Complainant who made the request for a supervisor, and for Sgt. Maxel making the Complainant stay at the laundromat until he checked clear on the warrant channel, without any reasonable suspicion that the Complainant had a warrant.	Chief Williams departed from CPRB recommendation and dismissed the allegation of Unprofessional Conduct. Chief Williams departed from CPRB recommendation and dismissed the allegations of Unprofessional Conduct and Improper Detention.
